

New Jersey Wing CAP
Corporate Learning Course (CLC)
10-11 November 2007
McGuire Air Force NCO Academy (Building 2610)

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The members attending this Corporate Learning Course are continuing their understanding of “Team CAP.” At Level III, the adult CAP member will be in the thick of operating their respective wing in support of CAP’s major mission elements. This “corporateness” refers to CAP’s status as a nonprofit humanitarian corporation. The next 12 hours will be devoted to developing a knowledgeable CAP corporate citizen and enhancing their ability to contribute in a team environment. Help make the connection between the squadron, which the member is now very familiar with, and its connection to, and support of the wing.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The course’s overall goals are organized into two blocks: Corporate Citizenship and Teambuilding. The objectives and desired student outcomes will be detailed at the first day of the course.
